

CLEVER GIRLS OF THE CAP AND GOWN, WHO ARE OFFICERS OF THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE; GRADUATING CLASS AND WHO THIS WEEK RECEIVE INSTITUTION'S HIGH HONORS.

To-morrow, at the Woman's College, being class day, will be, also, a most important, busy and happy day in the lives of the graduating class of 1906.

Perhaps never again will they so occupy the attention and the interest of all around them, and be so united in the bonds of good fellowship, as at just this time, when, filled with the joy of success, and with well-earned honors in their reach, they bid adieu to scholastic duties and enter the outside world of men and women with their laurels in their hands.

The officers of the class of 1906 are: Miss Evelyn Martin, of Stuart, Va., president; Miss May Sheppard, of Richmond, vice-president; Miss Ethel Pickett, of High Point, N. C., secretary; Miss Louise Thomasson, of Richmond, treasurer.

The officers of class-day are: Miss Bessie Wilson, orator; Miss Ruth Blanton, historian; Miss Delha Dudley, poet; Miss Myra Ackiss, prophet; Miss Evelyn Martin, prophet for the prophet; Miss Annie Leland Green, class will and testament; Miss Maude Puckett, valedictorian;

Miss Lucy Scott, tree orator, and Miss Jennie Chory, bonfire orator.

The Class Roll.

The class roll by courses includes two M. A. students, Miss May Muriel Sheppard and Miss Louise Elvira Thomasson; two B. A.'s, Miss Mary Burnley Billingsley and Miss Jennie Chory; one B. A. and B. M., Miss Sarah Ethel Pickett; seven on whom the degree B. S. will be conferred, Miss Mary Florence Barnes, Miss Mary Turner Perkins, Miss Virginia Anne Roberts, Miss Annie Leland Green, Miss Maude Caroline Puckett, Miss Lucy Courtice Scott and Miss Virginia Hilda Tatum; one B. L. and B. M., Miss Evelyn Martin; twenty B. L.'s, Miss Myra Geneva Ackiss, Miss Ruth Annabel Blanton, Miss Mary Elizabeth Chaplin, Miss Mary Louise Dickinson, Miss Irene Galeski, Miss Mary Smith, Miss Mary Anne Newcomb, Miss Willie Jane Richardson, Miss Mary Boardman Smith, Miss Myra Uldine Vaiden, Miss Susie Lucille Bell, Miss Bessie Deane Brown, Miss Mabel Elizabeth Deane, Miss Caroline Jefferson Fitzpatrick, Miss Nannie Coffey Ball, Miss Jennie Kate

Mitchell, Miss Mary Oliver Pollard, Miss Edna May Smith, Miss Elizabeth Brightwell Tallafiero, and Miss Nannie Baldwin Verser; ten B. M.'s, Miss Minnie Merle Cogbill, Miss Delha Miller Dudley, Miss Mattie Ruth Lewis, Miss Mary Elizabeth Scott, Miss Susie Lucille Busch, Miss Myrtle Louise Dodson, Miss Lula Burke Button, Miss Mary Clarke Pitts, Miss Lily Frances Trevett and Miss Bessie Garland Wilson.

The class flower is the Kaiserin rose and the class motto, "Ich Dien," is that of King John, the blind king of Bohemia, slain at the battle of Cressy, in 1346. The Black Prince of England found him lying dead on the field of honor and adopted his motto and crest, the three black plumes worn by the Prince of Wales, since that time.

Beautiful Class Pin.

The class pin of chased gold, has a scroll beneath a triangle inscribed with the class motto. The members of the class will file into the chapel to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock, linked together with a chain wreath of smiles, and singing the class song composed by Miss Uldine Vaiden and set to music by Professor Reinhardt, the last verse of which is:

"Oh guide us, as from thee we part,
And strengthen now each loyal heart
"Ich dien" shall our motto be,
A pledge of faith our lives shall prove,
We'll serve with all sincerity
With souls of hope and trust and love."

The address of welcome by Miss Evelyn Martin, class president, will be followed by Miss Bessie Wilson's oration, Miss Ruth Blanton's history of the class, Miss Delha Dudley's class poem, Miss Myra Ackiss's class prophecy, Miss Martin's prophecy for the prophet, Miss Green's class will and testament and Miss Maude Puckett's valedictory. This is Miss Dudley's class poem:

Class Poem.

Of all the bright and happy days
That fill the golden year
This is the happiest of them all
And to our hearts most dear.

To-day with greatest joy and bliss
Our glad hearts palpitate
The longest-for time has come at last
To-day we graduate.

To-day with joy we gather 'round
The bonfire blazing high
To give to it each dreaded look
Without a tear or sigh.

To-day with joyful hearts we sing
Our happy glad class song.
To this bright hour with all its bliss
Our sweetest songs belong.

To-day with merry hearts we look

Into the future dim—
Each hoping that her cup of joy
May overflow the rim.

We to these walls and school days bid
The fondest of farewells.
The shadows come at last
Each heart as it to-day looks back
With love and rapture swells.
And as we now go forth to serve
Both great and small each day,
Roses will take the place of thorns
Upon the long, rough way.

And as we on our journey go,
Through sunshine and through shade,
Sweet memories will the shadows lift
By happy school days made.

And when into our happy lives
The shadows come at last,
Our school days we'll remember then
The bright and golden past.

The farewell song has been written for the class by Dr. R. A. Stuart and set to music by Professor Reinhardt. The class members, singing it, will pass from the chapel to the lawn, where Miss Lucy Scott will deliver the tree oration, and Miss Jennie Chory will be the bonfire orator. The class tree this year is a maple, named after Mr. and Mrs. Martin. Into the bonfire will be cast all things that have proven obnoxious, and thereby deserve to perish from class remembrance.

These are the words of Dr. Stuart's farewell song:
"Farewell, ye consecrated halls,
Where fondest memories dwell;

Farewell, ye gray scholastic walls,
One long and last farewell.
Farewell, sequestered virgin bowers,
Our harbor and retreat;
Where through so many happy hours
We held communion sweet.
Farewell, ye tomes of mystic lore,
The Muse's irksome debt;
We feel as never felt before
A yearning and regret.
Farewell, one long and last farewell.

"Farewell, true souls together bound,
By fellowship endeared;
Behold, the altar love has reared
Lies prostrate on the ground!
Yet, though our bodies thus must part
By destiny unkind,
Within her comrade's breast each heart
Forever rests enshrined.
And after earthly toil and strife,
The labor and the jars;
We soon shall see our larger life
Beyond the distant stars."

The first appearance of the class in cap and gown will be at to-morrow's exercises and at the alumnae luncheon following class day celebration. Distinctions, diplomas and degrees will be awarded Tuesday evening, June 5th, at 8:30 o'clock, in the Academy of Music. On this occasion the writer's medal, given for the best historical sketch, essay and story, will be bestowed. Five young ladies have entered the contest for this medal, the winning of which is considered a high honor.

Alumnae Luncheon.

A pleasant episode of class day will be the annual luncheon of the Alumnae Association to be given at Outh's at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. The gathering this year promises to be unique in many of its features.

The reception committee will include Mrs. Sallie Harris, Miss Lily Becker, Mrs. Emma Clark, Miss Madge Montgomery and Miss Ruth Harrison.

They will meet the guests and aid them in finding the dainty name cards, toast cards, which will be placed beside each cover. The color scheme, developed in green and white, will be elaborately carried out, a number of the college flags aiding in the decoration.

Over one hundred of the alumnae will be present, and the smaller tables for six each will be grouped about that arranged for the guests of honor, the Woman's College graduates of this year.

After the seating of the alumnae the graduates will enter in a body to the strains of orchestra music. A register will be kept at the elevator entrance to the luncheon hall, and each guest will be requested to register before coming in.

Many of the alumnae present will come from a distance. Miss Belle Williamson will be toast mistress and Mrs. Katherine Guder, Langley, Mrs. Anne Harwood Abraham, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Florence Thalhimer, of this city, will respond to the toasts she proposes.

Miss Becker will welcome the class, and her welcome will be responded to by Miss Uldine Vaiden on behalf of the graduating class. The class song will be sung before the luncheon is over.

o'clock. This is an extremely important meeting.

Kindergartners to Meet.

There will be a called meeting of the Northside Kindergarten Association Wednesday afternoon next, at 5 o'clock, in Mizpah Presbyterian Church.

Monroe-Hutson.

A very quiet wedding took place last evening at 9 o'clock, in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Hutson, No. 130 South Pine Street, when their daughter, Miss Annie Blanche Hutson, was united in marriage to Mr. L. Roy Monroe, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Monroe, of Dunkirk, N. Y. Mr. L. Roy Monroe has been a resident of Richmond for several years.

The Rev. J. B. Hutson, of Pine Street Baptist Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore white point d'esprit over tulle and carried bride roses. The groom's gift to the bride was a very handsome watch. After their bridal trip Mr. and Mrs. Monroe will live in Richmond.

At Cameron Lodge.

Colonel and Mrs. Alexander Cameron and the Misses Cameron left Saturday for "Cameron Lodge," in Orange county, to remain until the autumn. Within easy driving distance of "Cameron Lodge" is "Gaston Hall," near Somerset, the beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. George Zinn. Mrs. Zinn, a bride of the Easter season, is charmingly recalled here as Miss Flora Cameron.

The section of country in which "Cameron Lodge" is situated, with its gay Richmond summer colony, is fast becoming as famous as it was when, with Judge Barbour at "Prossett," the present residence of Mrs. James Allison, Governor Barbour at Barboursville, which still bears his name; President Madison at "Montpelier," now owned by Mr. and Mrs. William Dupont, and President Jefferson at Monticello, the constant interchange of card parties and dinner companies rendered it phenomenally brilliant and attractive.

Personal Mention.

Mr. Allen M. Yenge, mining engineer, who has been in charge of extensive gold mining operations in Costa Rica, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Yenge, at No. 104 East Franklin Street.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Arnold, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Arnold, of Augsburg, Germany, arrived in the city Friday, after an extended tour of "the States," and are at the Jefferson.

The Misses Kidwell will give their monthly german on Friday evening, June 8th, from 9 to 12 o'clock, at Belvidere Hall. A string band will furnish the music.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rogers have returned to their home, in Afton, Va., after a visit to relatives here.

Miss Annis Cabell Laurens is the guest of Mrs. James Hooten, in Ashland.

Mr. J. L. McCue is the guest of his sister, Mrs. W. S. Rhodes, in Brooksville, Va.

Mrs. O. P. Binns and Mrs. C. L. Babcock, of Elm's Hall, Va., visited Richmond last week.

Miss Fannie Bouldin, of Surry county, is spending some time in Richmond.

Mr. W. W. Sproul has returned to Staunton, after a short trip to Richmond.

Marvelous Millinery Pricing.

Radical Price Reductions

This sale includes our entire Millinery assortment. The most comprehensive in the city. Although our prices are always lower than others, we still further reduce most radically for this Great Second Floor Sale.

30 Pattern Hats, $10.

Our entire line of HIGH-CLASS IMPORTED HATS sacrificed. Many of these cost to import $35.00 and $40.00, others $20.00 and $25.00. Your pick here now at $10.00.

Trimmed Hats, $3.50.

This lot was especially made and gotten up to sell at this price. In other words, our trimmers were ordered to make up a slightly line of Ladies' Hats to sell at $3.50.

This is the Result:

They used material as they saw fit, and shapes to sell readily. No further argument is necessary. They look like $7.00 or $8.00 Hats, and will be sold at $3.50.

Silk and Chiffon Hats, 95c

An unheard-of price for such merchandise. We bought too many of this particular line, and a very popular price should see this lot move at a very rapid pace. In all colors. Some of the line worth $4.00 to $5.00. The entire choice will sell at 95c.

Untrimmed Hats, 50c.

This line of Hats includes all the new shapes, mostly in colors. The former prices were $1.25. Among this lot are Hemp Hats, sold in many stores at $3.00 apiece. Choice of any will be 50c.

Children's Trimmed Hats at $2.50.

A more slightly line of Hats never were shown for so small a price. Earlier in the season they would have been snapped up at $5.00 quicker than a wink. There are, all told, about 15 to choose from. One prettier than the other. $2.50 will be the price.

Trimmed Hats, $5.00.

Several hundred Elegantly Trimmed Hats. Many of these have been on display for a day, others have been shown a week or so. Every one in the entire assortment worth up to $10.00. Your pick will be $5.00.
